

University Program Board For Immediate Release

A Night of Comedy with Eric O'Shea

Normal, IL- The University Program Board will be hosting Up Late @State A Night of Comedy with Eric O'Shea on Friday, March 3. The event takes place at Capen Auditorium in Edwards Hall. The show begins at 9:00 p.m. and goes until 10:00 p.m.

ISU students can enjoy a night of laughing. Eric O'Shea is an outstanding comedian who has toured colleges around the country. His high-energy comedy and over the top jokes will have you laughing nonstop and wanting more from his talented comedian.

For more information, please contact Caitlin O'Donovan at UPB Marketing @1stu.edu or 309-438-8814.

The University Program Board (UPB) is "your source for campus activities" at Illinois State University. UPB is committed to establishing student-driven programs, focused on the social, cultural, educational, and recreational growth of Illinois State University and the surrounding community. UPB provides students with the opportunity to become involved in planning, promoting, implementing and assessing events for students to learn, grow and develop into quality leaders.

###

<http://upb.illinoisstate.edu>

